The primaries will be held Friday coming, and in Westerly there is no open, organized effort in favor of any of the candidates. In the matter of mational committeeman, with Greens and O'Shaunnesy as candidates, it seems to be a case of the latter against the party machine, and he is making a personal and bitter fight for the place a la Roosevelt style.

The straws that float with the policy of the place of the latter against the policy of the latter against the party of the country of the country of the latter against the party of the country of objection against the use of the iron guard fences of the Broad street bridge

The straws that float with the po-litical tide indicate that the party leaders are favorable to Champ Clark as presidential nominee. This is evi-dent from the fact that buttons beardent from the fact that buttons bearing a likeness of Clark are being distributed to the faithful by the local party leaders, and with no Wilson, Harmon or Bryan buttons in sight. The polls will open at 6 in Westerly and close at 9, and the voting will be by check list. If only democrats vote at this primary the officials at the polling place will have lots of spare time.

Governor Pothier will soon determine whether he has authority to appoint a justice of the superior court to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of justice Christopher M. Lee, to hold office until appointment is made by the general assembly. Among the candidates mentioned for the position are judge John W. Sweeney of Westerly, William B. Greenough of Providence, former attorney general, Senator Fredformer attorney general, Senator Frederick A. Jones of Cranston, Chester W. Barrows of Providence, referee in bankruptey and who delivered the oration at the Masonic ceremonies of laying the cornerstone of the new Westerly town building and courthouse, John Masonic Court John Heffernan and Ambrose Kennedy

Heratofore Westerly has been re-markably free from the billboard nuis-ance, as these means of advertising have been located in places that were the least objectionable. But at the present time the civic center of West-erly is married by a big cloth sign announcing a vaudeville attraction be-ing placed in front of the site of the new postoffica about midway between the Memorial building and Colonial clab.
